Fears for community hospital

By Matthew Stanton

A HEALTH organisation has been criticised over its handling of plans to build a multi-million pound community hospital in Dagenham.

Barking and Dagenham Council has written to NHS Outer North East London (ONEL) asking for clarification on the future of the facility at the Sanofi Aventis site.

It is feared the community hospital - deemed the 'brainchild' of residents, councillors and council officers - will be scrapped.

Councillor Mick McCarthy, cabinet member for regeneration at Barking and Dagenham Council, claimed health service managers were 'failing to take the needs of the community into account'.

He said: "This confusion does not show any consideration for the health concerns of local people and is evidence of the left hand not knowing what the right hand is doing."

"We have worked hard with residents to make sure the facility would be in place, but the mixed messages we are getting from health managers leave a lot to be desired."

"We would like managers from the health service to come out and tell people what the state of play is regarding this provision."

Barking and Dagenham Council believes the new facility, which will include an outpatients department and other services, would address gaps in local health provision.

The hospital will include a care centre with medics, nurses, dentists, pharmacists, outpatients departments and health screening. The NHS denied plans for the hospital had been scrapped.

A spokesman said: "We are still involved in discussions with a range of partners and stakeholders around a potential health facility in Dagenham and have started working with GP commissioners to develop a business case.

"We are committed to getting the best value for money that we can and will spend taxpayers' money responsibly while protecting frontline health services."

The council is urging all residents to back its campaign for the hospital, which includes an online petition.

To sign the petition, call Mark Tyson on 020 8227 2875 or visit www.lbbd.gov.uk/healthpetition

COUNCIL CHIEF SLAMS WAITING TIMES IN A&E

EXCLUSIVE by Steve Neale

A&E PATIENTS are being forced to wait too long for treatment, according to one of London's most senior local government officials.

Anne Bristow is director for adult and community services at Barking and Dagenham Council.

She claimed patients across Barking and Dagenham, Havering, Redbridge and Waltham Forest are having 'real difficulties' accessing services.

The most recent survey of care at Whipps Cross Hospital revealed 20 per cent of patients were waiting more than four hours for treatment.

Ms Bristow said: "A&E are under huge pressure across all four boroughs."

"These sort of problems do not give us confidence that things are getting any better."

"We know staff are doing their best. Nurses and doctors are doing everything they can."

"They are not at fault, it is the system. The same goes for the likes of Queen's and King George."

Ms Bristow said problems in the service have intensified following the merger of health trusts into NHS Outer North East London (ONEL).

The hospitals affected are Whipps Cross in Leytonstone, Queen's in Romford and King George in Goodmayes.

Changes were introduced by Labour, placing doubt on the future of maternity and A&E services at King George Hospital.

Although plans for a community hospital in Dagenham were aimed at addressing 'gaps in health provision', they are now in doubt.

Ms Bristow added: "Those plans now appear to have been scrapped. There are also plans to relocate maternity services away from King George. We feel those plans are a bit short-sighted."

"Now we see GPs are being stopped from working extended hours. That seems to us to be madness. People are not being supported near to where they live."

"This will put even more pressure on A&E. People know they shouldn't go there for minor problems, but if they have no alternative..."

"These changes are coming in by stealth. We intend to do all we can to campaign now before the cuts have been introduced."

ONEL has consistently denied that service changes are to be introduced without a full consultation.

The health organisation also insists services will be maintained at the highest level.

New Mayor named

MILTON McKenzie MBE has been named as the new Mayor of Barking and Dagenham.

He was officially elected at the Ceremonial Council last Friday.

Mr McKenzie became a ward councillor for Barking and Dagenham Council in 1998. He was awarded an MBE in 2009 for services to trade unionism and to diversity and equality opportunities in Barking and Dagenham.

During the 1970s, Mr McKenzie was a shop steward for the GMB union at Ford, Dagenham and progressed to become chair of the Joint Working Committee in 1980s.

During his tenure, he dealt with controversial issues on behalf of the workforce such as equali-ties and shop floor working conditions.

In 2002, he was appointed as chair of the East London Waste Authority (ELWA) - a post he held for six years and was also executive council member for environmental issues.

Mr McKenzie has represented Barking and Dagenham Council as a school governor at various junior and comprehensive schools, serving Gascoigne, Marks Gate and Chadwell Heath. He has also represented Barking and Dagenham locally and nationally at various public events.

He became the youth development officer for Barking and Dagenham through Essex County
Cricket Club and has a passion for all sports, with cricket being his favourite.

He served on the Ford Sports Executive Committee for many years and was chairman of Ford Sports Cricket Club. In that time, he arranged games, tours and developed the Colts section and was involved in coaching and umpiring.

He has also been a member of Barking and Dagenham Sports Council for many years.

Mr McKenzie said: "I am delighted to be elected to serve as the Mayor of Barking and Dagenham.

"I'm looking forward to the year ahead and what it will hold."

The Mayor's Charity Appeal is to support
Living the Dream.

NEW MAYOR: Milton McKenzie.

Stolen bikes recovered

OFFICERS patrolling Chadwell
Heath streets have recovered two stolen bikes.

The Chadwell Heath Safer
Neighbourhood Team visited disused garages at Marks Gate where they made the discovery.

The first, a 125 Scrambler, has been returned to its owner, and the second, a 1000cc Suzuki has been seized and may be destroyed.

Police records show that the second vehicle had previously failed to stop for police.

Teenage cyclist dies in crash

A BOY from Dagenham died when his bicycle was hit in a crash last Tuesday.

Thomas Stone, 13, died at the scene after the collision in Bell
Farm Avenue at around 7.45pm.

The car involved in the accident was a blue Toyota Celica.

Enquiries into the circumstances of the collision are being carried out by the Road
Death Investigation Unit (RDIU)
at Chadwell Heath Traffic
Garage.

Investigators are appealing for any witnesses to the collision, or anyone with any information, to call the RDIU witness line on 020 8597 4874.

Two people were arrested in connection with the incident at the scene and have been released on bail pending further enquiries.

Allotment sites gain additional protection

ALLOTMENT sites in Barking and Dagenham now have added protection from development.

Councillors have voted to declare all plots Statutory Allotment Land, which means that the land cannot be converted from allotment use without the written permission of the Secretary of State.

The step was taken after a question was put to the leader of the council, Councillor Liam Smith, at one of his public question and answer sessions in 2009.

A representative of Barking Allotment Society asked Mr Smith to declare the council's allotment sites statutory, giving them extra protection under the Allotments Act.

The borough has 16 allotment sites including two - Groveway and Linkway - that have recently been re-opened.

There is also a proposal to reopen another former site, in Thatches Grove, later this year.

George Gosling, chairman of the Allotments Representatives' Committee, said: "We've been campaigning for this for three years and we greet this decision very warmly. We're very satisfied with the way it's gone and we look forward to our new leases being delivered.

"One of the most important things about allotments is that they bring the community together.

"At each of the sites, we've got a big ethnic mix and we all get on well and learn from one another.

"Also, there's still a bigger proportion of retired people. Some of them are on their own and they look forward to coming to the allotments, not just to do gardening but also to have a chat."

SAFE: George Gosling - a plot holder for more than 40 years - with Barking and Dagenham Council's Allotments Officer Peter London at Manning Road Allotments.

DONATE NOW: The Drugline team launch the text donation service at their base in Ilford.

Picture by Martin Dalton

Charity's text appeal

A CHARITY is using modern technology to help raise vital funds.

Drugline, in Eastern Avenue, Ilford, is one of the first charities in the country to start a free text message service to generate cash.

The charity has created its own unique personalised text code -

DRUG11 - so people can make donations of up to £10 by sending a free text and every penny donated goes to the charity.

Alan Wohlman, from Drugline, said: "This is a wonderful way for us to raise money as it's speedy, simple and spontaneous.

"Most people have a mobile phone so we expect this to be very popular."

The new text scheme is supported by Vodafone's JustTextGiving.

Supporters of Drugline can make donations by texting DRUG11 and either 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 or 10 to 70070.

Donating just £2 will ensure the Drugline outreach team, which delivers education to thousands of children every year, can continue.

It will also keep their freephone helpline and drop-in centres open.

For more information, log on to www.drugline.org

Inflatable bowel goes on the road

SHOPPERS will be invited to walk through a giant inflatable bowel in a bid to find out more about the signs of bowel cancer and how the colon works.

Doctors hope the publicity drive will raise awareness of the disease after research revealed a severe lack of knowledge about bowel cancer.

Nurses will be on hand in Romford, Barking and Ilford's shopping centres, to offer advice and information and distribute a symptom checker card listing the key symptoms of bowel cancer.

At the moment, local rates of bowel cancer per 100,000 population are, Barking and Dagenham 44, Havering, 38, Redbridge 37.

Havering GP and medical director for NHS Barking and Dagenham said: "People should see their GP as soon as possible if they have any of the symptoms. There's no need to be embarrassed - it's all in a days work for your doctor."

The inflatable bowel will be visiting Romford, Barking and Ilford next week.

Time to play

SCHOOLCHILDREN have been having fun on newly-installed play equipment in Dagenham.

Young people took to Mayesbrook Park last Friday as part of the official launch of the Playbuilder programme.

The children from Dorothy Barley Infants and Manor Infants and Junior School played on new equipment including a swinging tyre, a tunnel, nest swing, zip wire, slide and mounds with tunnels, surrounded by boulders and newly planted trees.

Play Workers from Youth League UK were on hand to provide a play session as part of the launch.

SAFER: Barking Park. Picture by Martin Dalton

Park award

BARKING Park has been given a Safer Parks award from the Mayor of London in recognition of efforts to get the community involved and reduce crime and anti-social behaviour.

The Victorian park, currently undergoing a major refurbishment, scooped a silver award from Mayor Boris Johnson - one of only 11 to get the accolade across the capital.

Park management has worked closely the local police and the Parks Safer Neighbourhood Team to provide reassurance to the public through maintaining a visible park presence and solving agreed community safety priorities.

Andy Johnson, Barking Park manager, said: "To achieve the silver award Barking Park had to demonstrate achievement in a wide range of categories.

"The achievement of this award recognises the hard work done by everyone involved in managing the park and our ongoing commitment to identifying areas of concern expressed by park users including reducing anti social behaviour and crime and also the perception of crime and safety in Barking Park."

Plans over the next twelve months to make Barking Park even safer and cleaner include:

- continued partnership working with the Parks Safer Neighbourhood Team.
- further consultation with the local community on safety issues.

- continued promotion of the Friends of Barking Park to help the group to grow.

- development of Dog Walking groups to give dog walkers more involvement.

- encouraging more volunteers to get involved with the park.

- New initiatives including a possible Park Watch scheme.

More recent success saw staff run a 'Get Involved' campaign to engage the local community in the running of the park.

The park has a thriving Friends group, which meets regularly and plays an active role in the day-to-day running of the park.

Anyone interested in helping to make Barking Park a safer place for all should contact the Park Manager on 020 8270 6269.

Callous conmen target pensioner

A BARKING pensioner has been conned out of £1,750 by fraudsters who carried out work to his garden.

The victim, who lives in Abbey ward, was followed by two men on May 3 who tried to convince him that they had previously done some work on his house.

He told them to leave, but they came back later and offered to clean his front garden for £5.

The pensioner agreed to have his back garden cleared by the crooks and they returned three days later with two workers - not believed to be involved in the scam - who set to work clearing the back garden.

Later the two rogue traders conned their victim into believing that he owed them £1,750 for the works. He went to the bank, withdrew the cash, and came back to pay them off.

The first man was white, aged around 30, well built, around 5ft 8in and had dark hair. His accomplice was also white, slim, around 5ft 10in, with light hair and spoke with a slight Irish accent. They drove a small white transit-type van.

They are believed to have been operating in Barking and also across the borough boundary in Ilford.

Sorry Hammers well-beaten as season comes to an end

West Ham United

A SORRY looking West Ham went through the motions in their final Premier League match and came out 3-0 losers to Sunderland.

With Avram Grant gone, Kevin Keen took charge of the Irons, but his youthful side was well beaten by the Black Cats, who had been struggling for form themselves in the latter half of the season.

James Tomkins, Jordan Spence, Jack Collinson, Freddie Sears and Zavin Hines – who could form the basis of next season's side – all started for Keen, but it looked to be boys against men.

Sears and captain-for-the-day Thomas Hitzlsperger both had early chances for the Irons, but the visitors took the lead on 17 minutes.

Asamoah Gyan had twice gone close before Ahmed Elmohamady crossed for Bolo Zenden to send a looping header beyond Robert Green.

Sunderland easily held off the West Ham challenge until half time and then doubled their lead six minutes after the restart.

Stephane Sessegnon picked up the ball on the half-way line and was given the freedom of Upton Park to run through to the edge of the box and let fly past Green unchallenged.

It could have got worse for the Irons as Gyan fired wide and Green stopped an effort from Jack Colback.

However, they managed to limit Sunderland to just one more goal, which arrived in stoppage time. Jordan Henderson found Cristian Riveros in the box and the Paraguayan brought the curtain down on a dismal season for the Hammers.

Keen has thrown his hat into the ring for the vacant manager's job, but Alex McLeish, whose Birmingham City side were also relegated at the weekend, has also been linked with the job.

CONSISTENT FINISHES: Ben Miles rode well on the Brands Hatch Grand Prix track.

Picture by Derek Smith

Consistent weekend for Miles at Brands

Motorsport

A MOTORCYCLE racer from Brentwood enjoyed a consistent weekend, picking up three fourth places on the Brands Hatch Grand Prix track at the weekend.

Ben Miles competes in the DFDS Seaways Yamaha Past Masters (YPM) Championship run by the British Motorcycle Racing Club, otherwise known as BEMSEE.

The championship caters for road-based Yamaha two-stroke production bikes from the 80s and 90s for riders looking for a cheaper way to go motorcycle racing.

After qualifying ninth in their only qualifying session on Saturday morning, Ben made progress through all his four races on his Yamaha TZR 250.

The first saw him make progress to claim fourth place, while the second race saw a consistent run to another fourth.

The third race on Sunday morning saw Ben make a great start up to second, but he dropped down to sixth on lap two before fighting back for another fourth.

It was another lightning start in the final race for Ben, but his run of fourth places came to an end as he had to settle for fifth place.

For more information on the YPM series, visit www.ypmrc.co.uk

Leyton Orient

Whing rejects Orient

FULL-back Andrew Whing has rejected a new contract with Leyton Orient to join League Two side Oxford United on a two-year deal.

The 26-year-old defender joined the O's from Brighton last October on loan before the deal was made permanent in January.

He played 28 games for the club, impressing many with his strong performances, and scored two goals, including the club's Goal of the Season in February's 4-1 win over Bristol Rovers.

Elsewhere, defender Aaron Brown, who was released by the club last week, has signed for League Two side Aldershot Town on a two-year deal.

Dagenham & Redbridge

Friendlies announced

DAGENHAM & Redbridge have arranged a number of pre-season friendlies ahead of their League Two campaign next season.

The matches will feature either a Daggers XI or the first team. They will take place on:

- Tuesday, July 12 - Boreham Wood (a) - first team.
- Saturday, July 16 - Mangotsfield (a) 3pm - first team.
- Tuesday, July 19 - Ebbsfleet (a) - first team.
- Thursday, July 21 - Billericay Town (a) - Daggers XI.
- Saturday, July 23 - Leyton Orient (h) 3pm - first team.
- Monday, July 25 - St Neots (a) - Daggers XI.
- Tuesday, July 26 - West Ham United (h) 7.45pm - first team.
- Thursday, July 28 - Bedfont (a) 7.30pm - Daggers XI.
- Monday, August 1 - Thurrock (a) - Daggers XI.

Essex County Cricket Club

Napier's sixes record

ESSEX'S Graham Napier equalled the record for the number of sixes hit in a first-class innings in Essex's draw at Surrey.

The all-rounder hit the big scores 16 times in Essex's first innings in the LV= County Championship Division Two encounter at the Whitgift School.

He hit 196 in 130 balls as Essex posted 548 in the first innings, and matched the record for sixes hit by Australian Andrew Symonds for Gloucestershire against Glamorgan in 1995.

The match at Surrey was Napier's first county match of the season as injuries blighted his 2010 campaign.

Essex were bowled out in their second innings for 324 on the final day. This left Surrey with a minimum of 27 overs to chase an improbable target of 367. They made 65-1 before both sides agreed to a draw.

American Football

Spartans go to the top

ESSEX Spartans climbed to the top of their division with a hard-fought 16-7 away victory over the Milton Keynes Pathfinders.

The teams clashed for the second time in as many weeks, but the Pathfinders, defeated 35-6 a week ago by the Billericay-based Spartans, proved to be a much tougher opponent when playing at home.

In a bruising encounter, both teams struggled to make any impression in the match early on, the first quarter ending scoreless.

Head coach Marc Saunders said: "This was a very tough test of the Spartans mettle. The win sets us up well for the second half of the season."

The Spartans travel to Norwich Devils on June 5, before returning to Hannakins Farm to host Bedfordshire Blue Raiders on June 19.

Shepherd Neame Essex Cricket League

PREMIER DIVISION

REIGNING champions Brentwood made three wins from three after taking a seven wicket win at Colchester & East Essex on Saturday.

In a tight encounter, Jonathan Walford (65) and Michael Pollard (55) helped Brentwood successfully chase Colchester's total of 214.

Wanstead lead the chasers in second, grabbing their second win of the season by four wickets at Ardleigh Green.

Muazzam Ali bolstered Ardleigh's innings of 225 all out with 61, but Wanstead made the target comfortably, helped by opener John Chambers' knock of 64.

Hainault & Clayhall recovered from last week's defeat to Colchester with a three-wicket win at South Woodford.

The hosts put up 271-6 in their 50 overs with Max Shirt hitting 92, but Imran Qadir was the star for Hainault with a knock of 160 off 141 balls to see his side home.

Loughton are still searching for their first league win of the season, going down by six wickets at home to Ilford.

Theeban Tavarasa did the damage with the ball for Ilford, taking 6-12 as Loughton were all out for 119. Gagan Bhogal's 53 ensured Ilford comfortably won.

Woodford Wells grabbed their first win of their campaign, winning by 106-runs at Chelmsford.

Kevin Smith hit 66 as Wells were 244 all out, but Chelmsford failed in their chase, bowled out for 138 with Rory Ellison taking 4-25.

DIVISION ONE

SHENFIELD are the only team with an unbeaten winning record so far, winning by 124-runs over Gidea Park & Romford.

They put up 305-8 in their 50 overs thanks to Jonathan Powell's knock of 120, which proved too much for the visitors as they were all out for 181, to leave them still searching for their first league win of the season.

Early pacesetters Buckhurst Hill went down by 15-runs to Hornchurch who move up to second. Upminster are third after seeing off Orsett comprehensively by 205-runs, while Fives & Heronians won by eight wickets over Chingford.

An incredible second wicket partnership of 237 runs between Edward Buxton (118 not out) and Phil Apps

(104) took Fives to victory after the loss of skipper Gary Edwards in the first over in their chase of 246.

Jarryd Blake's innings of 86 helped Hadleigh & Thundersley to a seven wicket victory at winless Harold Wood, who were bowled out for 162.

DIVISION TWO

HARLOW and Walthamstow both maintained their 100 per cent winning start.

The former won by 44-runs over Old Southendian & Southchurch, while the latter recorded a narrow one-wicket victory over Wickford.

Jamie Glenn was once again the star man for Walthamstow, hitting 133 to help his side overhaul Wickford's total of 233-9, who had Tanvir Alam score 84.

On the bowling side, Asif Bala took 4-27 for Walthamstow, while Asif Abbas also took four wickets for Wickford, but for 38 runs.

Westcliff bounced back to win their second win of the season, by seven wickets at Horndon on the Hill.

Southend EMT won at neighbours Leigh by 75-runs, while Hutton are the only side looking for their first win, losing by three wickets to Stanford Le Hope.

DAGENHAM Sunday MARKET

You can take the girl out of Dagenham.....

By Frank Nash

Published 17th May 2011

But you can't take Dagenham out of Stacey!

Our very own Stacey Solomon, the glamorous single mum from Essex who wowed the fans on 'I'm a celebrity, get me out of here!' admitted at a recent premier that her lovely cream chiffon frock was a bargain from her local market.

Stacey went on to say "I got loads of nice, expensive stuff to dress in on the show but when I saw this at Dagenham Market I really liked it"
